

15th IAIS Annual Conference

2008 Budapest, Hungary

dr. László György Asztalos

Member of the Board

Hungarian Financial Supervisory Authority

The Hungarian Financial Authority is greatly honoured to welcome and host the guests of the Annual Conference. It is our strong intention to show you that the Central-Easter European region, with Hungary in it representing the region this time, have exciting, interesting countries and cities with plenty of historic and cultural sights and events that are worth the attention of the world, and have dynamically developing insurance markets as well as supervisory authorities complying with all international standards.